Menoufia National University Organizes SDG Awareness Campaign in Collaboration with AIESEC

Under the patronage of Dr. Ahmed El-Kased, President of Menoufia University and Acting President of Menoufia National University, and Dr. Nancy Asaad, Academic Supervisor of Menoufia National University, the university hosted AIESEC representatives from Menoufia University to introduce students to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and Egypt's Vision 2030.

AIESEC is a global youth organization that aims to develop entrepreneurial and leadership skills among young people through internal leadership programs, training initiatives, and international student exchanges. The organization provides volunteer opportunities worldwide to promote the SDGs. AIESEC has a network of over 60,000 members in 110 countries, making it one of the largest operational student organizations globally. Annually, it offers more than 20,000 leadership experiences, sends students and graduates on over 16,000 global exchanges, and supports more than 4,000 partner organizations worldwide. These partners consider AIESEC as a platform that develops young talents, enhances personal growth, and strengthens leadership skills through cultural exchange and volunteer projects aligned with the SDGs. Its headquarters are located in Notre Dame, Netherlands.

Menoufia National University hosted the AIESEC team to engage students in understanding the SDGs within the framework of Egypt's Vision 2030. The event was supervised by Dr. Ibrahim Hashem, Dean of the Engineering Sector, organized by the Student Affairs Department, and involved student participation, including Abdelrahman Sameh from the Faculty of Computers and Artificial Intelligence, who assisted in organizing and running the activities.
