

Recreational Sports Day at Menoufia National University Celebrating the Golden Jubilee of the October Victory
9 October 2023

Under the patronage of Prof. Dr. Ahmed El-Kased, President of Menoufia University and Acting President of Menoufia National University, and the supervision of Prof. Dr. Nancy Asaad, Academic Supervisor of Menoufia National University,

The Youth Welfare Department organized a Recreational Sports Day to celebrate the Golden Jubilee of the Glorious October Victory.

The event took place at the university's sports fields, activity halls, and athletic facilities, where a large number of university students enthusiastically participated in various sports competitions including five-a-side football, table tennis, chess, arm wrestling, darts, and speedball.

As part of the university's commitment to community engagement and promoting physical well-being, a group of young participants from Tokh Tanbsha Village, the community surrounding the university, were also invited to join the activities.

This initiative aimed to strengthen community ties and encourage young people to adopt healthy lifestyles and active participation in sports.

The Recreational Sports Day reflected the university's dedication to combining education, health, and community partnership, while celebrating a significant milestone in Egypt's modern history.
